

Teamsters Support Pete Stauber For Re-Election to Congress

Congressman Stauber voted for the Butch Lewis Act to protect and preserve your hard-earned pension.

MEET PETE

Pete became a professional hockey player and later, a police officer of 23 years.

Pete was elected to Congress in 2018, and he's working to continue advocating for Northern Minnesotans, cutting down excessive government regulation and creating good-paying jobs for the people of Minnesota.

"The Teamsters are backing Stauber because he has committed to support Teamster members 100% on all Labor issues including RTW, Pensions relief, and the fundamental right of workers to collectively bargain."

CONGRESSMAN STAUBER FIGHTS FOR WORKERS

Congressman Stauber co-sponsored the Butch Lewis Act that will help protect your pension and honor the promise in America that you receive the benefits you earned. Teamsters are proud to support Pete Stauber.

“The Line 3 replacement project will create thousands of jobs in our communities and will continue to deliver low-cost energy to Americans. Thanks to this Project Labor Agreement between LiUNA of Minnesota and North Dakota, the United Association of Plumber and Pipefitters, the International Union of Operating Engineers, Teamsters International, and Enbridge, these jobs will be filled by hardworking Minnesotans with the strongest labor protections in the world.”
